

January 7, 2012

To Whom It May Concern:

mentor tor her. with her as an acting partner, been directed by her, and have had the privilege to be a teaching for twelve years as an actor, colleague, and finally as a friend. During this time, I have worked It is my honor to write a letter of recommendation for Michelle Seaton. I have known Michelle the human condition. characters and the story. Her fearless vision always pushes the envelope and constantly questions actor. Michelle empowers her cast to collaborate, take risks and explore the circumstances of the Being directed in two shows by Michelle was a profoundly liberating experience for me as an encourages students to take risks while allowing them to grow. knowledge of the craft as well as a compassionate yet strong disposition as a teacher. She them grow in their scene work as well as growing as young artists. She has a wonderful classes, and on several occasions she took them over for me. Her work with my students helped outstanding. As Director of Theatre at the University of Portland, I asked Michelle to shadow my In addition to her extraordinary talent as a director, Michelle's teaching skills are just as condition will only enhance any production or class she chooses to undertake. instructor in acting or directing. Her talent, compassion and incredible awareness of the human I would not only recommend Michelle as a director to any theatre company, but also as an or accomplishments. Please do not hesitate to contact me if I can be of any assistance in clarifying Michelle's talents

Sincerely

University of Portland Director of Theatre Mindi L. Logan

KCACTF, Region VII Past Chair